I am a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with a Master's in Social Work. I have been helping individuals and couples navigate life's most challenging moments for over 10 years, bringing warmth, evidence-based expertise, and deep respect to every therapeutic relationship.

Change, even when necessary, can feel overwhelming. Whether you're navigating the challenges of divorce, healing from trauma, overcoming anxiety, breaking free [illegible] don't have to go through it alone.

I believe that therapy is not one size fits all. Treatment should be tailored to meet each client's unique individual needs and goals. I provide a compassionate, affirming, and trauma-informed space where clients can learn to build stronger, more authentic relationships with themselves and others.

Healing takes courage — but you don't have to do it alone. I am here to support your journey towards greater clarity and connection.
